CATHOLIC BAZAAR TO OPEN FRIDAY

"Country Fair" Is Filled With Rattling Good Features and Much Fun.

The Catholic Women's Bazaar opens Friday night for a week's running at the Old Opera House, on Opera Drive. At 6 o'clock the opening night, the doors will open to the whole Bisbee public upon a typical country fair, with quaint old fashioned country store, and numerous booths filled with pretty girls dispensing everything from sweet cider up.

There will be Japanese booths with little kimono women behind them, doll stores with a hundred waxed beauties waiting to be carried home to the highest bidder. Flowers, candy, fancy work, everything that makes the home prettier and sweeter and daintier will be found at the bazaar. And lastly, the "Lemon Lady," presided over by Mrs. Moore, recently of Chicago.

Among the spirited contests for prizes, which Bisbee folks want to watch closely are: the race for the diamond ring, between Miss Mary Butler, a pretty Copper Queen nurse, and Mrs. Dave Foster, the Libretto scholar.

ship, between Miss Ana McWilliams and Nora Regan; the race for the bracelet watch, between Miss Debora Harmon and Miss Margaret Smith.

A fine automobile will be given away at the close of the bazaar. Refreshments will be served each evening, consisting of hot tamales, sandwiches, coffee, cake and ices. And there will be dancing every night. As the funds raised by the bazaar are to go toward completing the new St. Patrick's church, it is believed Bisbee people all will take a keen interest in making the affair a great success.

SIGNAL COMPANY MISJUDGED.

That members of the New Jersey Signal Company encamped at Douglas until recently was not derelict in their duties as guards, was the statement of H. M. Wilson, an officer in that company, who bore a message from General Davis' office confirming his statement. A story recently appeared saying the company would be compelled to care for 100 horses from Douglas to New Jersey as a rebuke for insubordination. Sending the horses with this company was incidental, and not aimed to rebuke the boys of the company in any way. The story that the boys refused to obey military orders also was declared an untruth.

UNDER TWO FLAGS IS BEST FEATURE FOR ACTING OF THEDA BARA

Military Play, Based on Novel
by Ouida, Which Appears
This Afternoon and Evening at the Royal.

The swift, sharp action and fire of a military camp run through the new William Fox picture in which Theda Bara appears, "Under Two Flags," appearing again today at the Royal. It is a dramatization of Ouida's famous novel, conceived in all the splendor and glory with which the author wrote the book which has captivated all readers. Miss Bara, as Cigarette, the little French daughter of the regiment, has again displayed the art which makes her the foremost actress in the films.

Bertie Cecil (Herbert Hayes) is eldest son of the Viscount Royalieu. His younger brother Berkeley (Stanhope Wheatcroft) is a weakling who throws away at the gambling table all the money he can get his hands on.

This penchant of Berkeley's leads him almost to ruin. He contracts more debts than he can pay. His brother can spare no more cash. Berkeley, to meet his obligations, is forced to forge a check, signing to it the name of Lord Rockingham (Charles Craig), a friend of the family.

Venetia (Claire Whitney), sister of Rockingham, knows that the Cecil's need money. She begs Bertie, whom she loves, to let her help him, and even offers him money, but Bertie refuses.

Meanwhile, the money lender who had cashed Berkeley's forged note discovers the deception, and rushes to the Cecil's home with a detective Bertie, realizing what his brother has done, shoulders the blame for the crime. Rockingham learns of it, and offers to pay the value of the note. The detective insists on arresting Bertie and is about to do so, when the young man eludes him, rushes from the house, and after a frantic rush across country, escapes completely. Rake, his valet (Joe Crehan), goes with him. Back in his English home his friends hear that he has been killed in a continental railroad accident, and they mourn for him.

Time passes, and Bertie and Rake have wandered to Algeria. There they both enlist in the French army.
